

INTRODUCTION

DAVID STOLLMAN

My name is _____. I am (leadership position or organization), and it's my pleasure to welcome you. Out of respect to our speaker and our audience, please take this time to set your cell phone to silent. Thank you!

This program is sponsored by (list organizations).

David has energized students at over 500 campuses, and numerous fraternal conventions. He's held many volunteer roles in his fraternity, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and even served as a chapter advisor for the Alpha Sigma Tau sorority at NYU for 10 years.

After graduating from the University of Maryland, he started teaching fraternities how to recruit. Campuses kept asking him to come back, so David created Recruitment Boot Camp. In the last 10 years, RBC – Now LaunchPoint Solutions – has helped over ten thousand fraternity and sorority chapters, as well as hundreds of communities across North America to recruit better and more members.

He is the co-founder of both CAMPUPSEAK, an award-winning speakers agency, and HazingPrevention.org. David has spoken on campuses in Canada and 49 of the 50 states. And, that will sound much cooler once the University of Alaska gets it together!

David will always call Philadelphia home, but recently moved his wife and three young kids from a small New York City apartment to a house in South Florida and traded his subway pass for a minivan.

Please welcome David Stollman.
