

INTRODUCTION

RYAN MCKEE

Dr. Ryan McKee is an Assistant Professor of Instruction in Public Health with over 20 years experience teaching and learning from college students. His research focuses on sexual health, mental health, and hazing prevention.

His dissertation, Sexual Hazing among Fraternity Men: A Qualitative Study was the first to explicitly examine sexualized hazing among this population.

He is also co-editor of the book series Taking Sides: Clashing Views on Human Sexuality, published by McGraw-Hill.

A proud member of the Sigma Chi fraternity, Dr. McKee joins us from Pennsylvania, where he lives with his wife and two sons.

Please join me in welcoming Dr. Ryan McKee!

Updated 1.7.2026