Adam Giery is a speaker, consultant, and entrepreneur, dedicating his life to the field of education. Adam's passion for education is founded on the personal impact his teachers had on his life after helping him overcome a learning disability. Adam engages with governors, senators, industry leaders, and Fortune 500 companies to advocate for education reform.

Adam's experience in the education field started as a classically trained educator, certified in social sciences secondary education. While earning his master's degree in higher education policy studies, Adam developed several award-winning programs centered on student support services, sustainability, and professional skills within a higher education institution. These programs were replicated nationally, earning Adam a Gubernatorial Fellowship and his university's highest honor, the Order of the Pegasus. Adam is a proud alumnus of the University of Central Florida. As a student, Adam served as a three-term senator and as the Director of Campus Life for the Student Government Association. Adam is a proud brother of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, where he served as the chapter's Vice President.
