

INTRODUCTION

AUSTIN ARIAS

My name is <INSERT NAME>. I am the <INSERT LEADERSHIP ROLE AND ORGANIZATION> and it is my pleasure to welcome you to today's program. This program is sponsored by <INSERT SPONSORING GROUPS>.

Our speaker today is Austin Arias (pronounced Air-e-is).

As a former over-involved student leader at the University of South Florida, Austin understands first-hand the passion students have to make an impact on their campuses and ensure their organizations have a lasting legacy.

Originally from Tampa, Florida, Austin has been fortunate to work for and travel to college campuses around the country to share ways students can maximize their leadership potential. He has advised fraternities, sororities, programming boards and philanthropy groups on how to be effective and work through difficulties no matter how big or small. He strongly believes our failures can lead to successes.

Austin resides in Raleigh, North Carolina where he spends most of his free time with his rescue dog he named after a fraternity founder and playing in adult kickball and dodgeball leagues (Yes, these really do exist).

He is excited to be here today and have an honest conversation with you to help your community succeed. Please give a big <INSERT MASCOT> name to our speaker, Austin Arias

Updated 1.4.2019