EBONÉ BELL

My name is (Speaker's Full Name). I am (leadership position), and it's my pleasure to welcome you. This program is sponsored by (list organization sponsors).

Imagine if Oprah and Ellen had a baby. Well, that miracle baby would be Eboné Bell (pronounced Eb-oh-nay Bell).

Eboné is the founder and editor of Tagg Magazine, an award-winning print publication and media company for LGBTQ women across the country. She was featured in Forbes Magazine as an "Inspiring Black Entrepreneur Changing Our World." And that's exactly her mission: To create change and leave a stamp on this world. One of those stamps includes starting a student group for LGBTQ people of color while attending University of Maryland College Park. Seventeen years later the group is still going strong.

Eboné continues to be a dynamic community leader, speaker and trailblazer. She enjoys sharing her knowledge and passion for diversity issues, activism and entrepreneurship. When she's not doing that, she's performing live concerts in her living room...and waiting on Oprah and Ellen to call.

Please help me welcome Eboné Bell
